SITUATION AWARENESS & MANAGEMENT

Whether your operations are local or spread across the globe, Hawk Aerospace provides you with the tools for situational management. From dedicated software systems to a full state of the art Operations Centre, we can give you the tools to maintain a clear real-time picture of the operational situation allowing you to take the right decisions at the right time.

The Hawk Apollo System is tailor made to fit our customer's needs and can be scaled according to your needs. Together with top quality training and support our system is the ideal solution to manage your operations and improve your situational awareness and management.

Keep Your Operations Under Control

Bringing New Solutions to the Future of Situational Awareness & Management

Our Hawk Apollo solution is made up of five key modules, all directed by the Operations Manager in support of the Situation Management Team. These main modules cover:

- ✈ Information Assimilation (incl. Video)
- ✈ Operations Management
- ✈ Situational Visibility & Awareness
- ✈ Incident Management
- ✈ Communications and Dissemination

MANAGE, GUIDE, OVERSEE

The Apollo solution can be provided as a standalone system or as a SaaS offering to simplify your technology requirements. Also, we can offer the solution based on your specific requirements ranging purely one or more software modules right through to a full Operations Control Centre combined with leading edge communications facilities.

In addition, the Hawk Apollo solution modules are designed with a user-friendly interface providing users with the ideal platform to be able to recognise lay of the land, guide your team through everyday operations whilst all the while overseeing in real-time where everything is on easily readable information interfaces and mapping views.

The Hawk Apollo also provides an optional module with saved data of any past issues and drills so as to be able to build a review of what happened to make sure mistakes are avoided and operations improved. Furthermore, we target to keep the solution up to date with the most recent improvements and we will follow up with you to help in any way to ensure your peace of mind and operational efficiency.
